

Labor Market Risk

Nicaragua: Runner-up Best Human Resources in Central America

Central American Countries of the Future, 2005/2006, FDI Magazine

Labor Market Risk, published by the Economist Intelligence Unit, places Nicaragua as the second country in the Central American region with the lowest market risk. The report measures various indicators, such as: union strength, labor disputes, wage restrictions and hiring and firing restrictions.

Source: Viewswire.com, EIU, June 2009